The edge of the Roman Empire...

Hadrian's Wall Country

Britain's greatest Roman monument, Hadrian's Wall, was built on orders of the Emperor, to define and control the empire's northern edge - an empire that stretched across Europe, the Middle East and northern Africa. Evidence suggests Hadrian inspected work on the Wall in AD122. For almost 2,000 years, the Wall has stood as a symbol of power and might. Today Hadrian's Wall is part of the UNESCO World Heritage Site Frontiers of the Roman Empire, one of the largest in the world.

Were you coming from the north 2,000 years ago, you would have received a rather cool reception. Safe to say your welcome will be a lot warmer and friendlier nowadays.

For 80 miles, Hadrian's Wall stretches across northern England, from coast to coast, crossing dramatic countryside and cosmopolitan cities alike. Along its course you will find a wealth of Roman heritage, to explore and enjoy, in a variety of dynamic ways. Modern museums and galleries tell stories through state of the art interpretation and displays, archaeology in action with live digs and excavations, full scale reconstructions and re-enactments bringing the Roman frontier to life, and of course Roman remains, from parts of the Wall itself to precious treasures found in the World Heritage Site.

Hadrian's Wall Country has more: spectacular coastlines, breathtaking countryside, picturesque villages, short ambles or epic treks, easy bike rides or challenging cycles, things to see and do whatever the weather, and lovely places to stay, which when combined with the unique history and heritage, make for a super holiday.

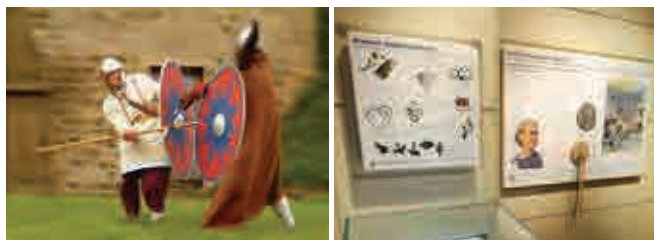

This guide will provide you with an introduction to Hadrian's Wall Country, and help with your planning and booking. Please use it together with the 2014 Hadrian's Wall Country Map and the website visithadrianswall.co.uk and you'll have all you need for the perfect Roman holiday!

Arbeia Roman Fort & Museum

Overlooking the River Tyne at South Shields, Arbeia Roman Fort is an important part in the Hadrian's Wall story. Built around AD160, Arbeia was an active garrison that guarded the shipping routes to Hadrian's Wall and became the military supply base for its 17 Forts.

The museum, which celebrated its 60th year in 2013, houses some of the remains that have been found since excavations began in the late 1800's. There are impressive full-scale reconstructions at Arbeia, including the West Gate, the Commanding Officer's house and a barrack block. These reconstructions show the scale of Roman military architecture and highlight the very different living conditions of all ranks. Arbeia has one of the finest collections of finds from Roman Britain, and more objects are being uncovered each year, as archaeologists continue to excavate this fascinating site.

Segedunum Roman Fort, Baths & Museum

Segedunum – meaning 'Strong Fort' - was built to guard the eastern end of Hadrian's Wall, and once housed 600 Roman soldiers. It stood for almost 300 years as a symbol of Roman rule and a bastion against barbarian attack.

Now, Segedunum Roman Fort, Baths & Museum at Wallsend is the most excavated fort along Hadrian's Wall, where visitors can see foundations of many buildings and part of the Wall itself. Highlights of the museum include the only reconstructed Roman Bath House in the UK and a 35 metre high viewing tower providing outstanding views across this World Heritage Site.

Great North Museum: Hancock

The museum features a large scale interactive model of Hadrian's Wall and is Europe's only venue with objects from every major Roman site on the frontier.

Star objects include an inscription stone that provides conclusive proof that the Wall was built on the orders of Emperor Hadrian, unique carvings depicting the popular Roman god Mithras, and the gold Aemelia Ring - believed to be the earliest Christian artefact found in Roman Britain. Visitors can also add their name to a stone on a virtual Hadrian's Wall.

Corbridge Roman Town

Not all of the sites on the frontier were heavily guarded fortresses. Corbridge was a supply base and bustling town where the soldiers and civilians could pick up food and provisions. Visit today and you can see the military granaries and walk along a Roman high street. In the museum marvel at the remains of life in the Roman town. Perhaps the most famous find is the Corbridge Roman Hoard, a time capsule of information which contains armour, weapons and trinkets.

In 2014, Corbridge Roman Town celebrates the 50th anniversary of the Corbridge Hoard's discovery so it is the perfect time to come and discover what it can tell us about life on the frontier.

Chesters Roman Fort

Nestled in a beautiful riverside location, it's not hard to see why Chesters was a good spot for the Romans to set up a base. Our Museum houses a fascinating collection of finds from John Clayton, who was a keen Victorian antiquarian and 'saviour of the Wall'. If it wasn't for him, this ancient monument would not exist as it does today. See Roman belt buckles, shoes and a bronze bucket used to measure out a soldier's weekly grain allowance.

New for 2014: come and see the amazing Eagle created from the bronze coins discovered in Coventina's Well.

Housesteads Roman Fort

Housesteads is the most iconic of all the Wall sites. The views and Roman remains are spectacular. Delve into the Fort's story and see a stunning collection of artefacts. A CGI film flies through time and reconstructs Housesteads before your very eyes.

Get up close and personal with real Roman objects and marvel outside at the fort. It's one of the best preserved in the country with ancient draining and heating systems and latrines (aka communal toilets). You can't help but wonder; how did they build this? All the way up here? Almost 2000 years ago? It still amazes us every day.

Roman Vindolanda

Roman Vindolanda offers the visitor an award winning museum and the opportunity to explore the most exciting archaeological site in Europe. Vindolanda is home to the 'Vindolanda Writing Tablets', these small thin wooden letters were voted Britain's top treasure by the British Museum. A collection of these precious documents along with thousands of other extraordinary artefacts from everyday Roman life are displayed in the modern museum. Live excavations take place between April and September where visitors can watch history being uncovered. In addition visitors can enjoy the beautiful gardens and make use of the excellent tea room. Full details of family days and events can be found on the website. Fantastic discounted admission applies when purchasing a joint ticket with the Roman Army Museum.

Roman Army Museum

Situated next to one of the most complete sections of Hadrian's Wall the Roman Army Museum uses stunning real 3D technology in a specially designed film theatre and interactive displays which enable visitors to understand life for soldiers on this most northern frontier. This accessible museum has its own Latin classroom with a teacher who emerges from the past via a hologram to give an entertaining lesson in maths and morals. Fantastic discounted admission applies when purchasing a joint ticket with Roman Vindolanda.

Birdoswald Roman Fort

Built in one of the most picturesque places in Cumbria, Birdoswald is where you can see the longest continuous stretch of Hadrian's Wall. This beautiful fort is now an open space to explore the Roman ruins with a popular stopping point for walkers and cyclists. Come and rest your weary legs in the cosy tearoom. We'll give you a warm Cumbrian welcome and show you what life was like in Roman times in our exhibition.

Walking and cycling Hadrian's Wall

Hadrian's Wall is an ancient monument. So it needs TLC and you can do your bit please, by...

- Not walking on the Wall itself
- Take your litter home
- Follow signposted paths
- Walk side by side
- Keep gates closed
- Control your dog
- Use public transport
- Support local businesses
- Consider circular walks and Roman site visits instead of the Trail
- Avoid worn patches on the Trail

Thank you. Every little bit helps

Short or long. Easy or challenging. Countryside or city. The choices available to both walkers and cyclists in Hadrian's Wall Country are fantastic.

Walking the Wall

To fully appreciate the staggering scale and engineering feat of Hadrian's Wall, try walking its entire length. Hugging the Wall from end to end, the Hadrian's Wall Path National Trail has been voted the nation's favourite. This unique Trail is best tackled during the summer months when the grassy path is at its most healthy and the impact of boots on sensitive archaeology underfoot is minimised. Please help by abiding to the Every Footstep Counts code of conduct. Thank you.

There are also plenty of do-in-a-day (or shorter) walks that pepper Hadrian's Wall Country. Circular routes from car parks, linear routes linking with buses, guided and themed, there's bound to be something up your street, or country path.

Cycling the Wall

If you're eager to get pedalling, Hadrian's Wall Country will not disappoint. The 150-mile Hadrian's Cycleway will test your stamina as you ride quiet roads and bridleways following the Wall and down the Cumbrian coast. If a leisurely pace is more your thing, there are numerous country lane and cycle path-based routes that include Roman sites, pubs and tearooms along the way.

You don't even have to bring your own bikes. New hire centres in Maryport and Carlisle that can provide adult and children bikes to rent and routes to ride, and even electric bikes if you don't fancy pedaling all the time!

For suggestions of routes for walkers and cyclists, please go to visithadrianswall.co.uk

Getting around Hadrian's Wall

It's surprising how well connected Hadrian's Wall is.

There's easy access from the north and the south by train, either into Carlisle on the West Coast mainline and Newcastle on the East Coast mainline. An international airport and ferry terminal at Newcastle makes arriving from overseas simple too.

Getting round by public transport is a breeze once you're in Hadrian's Wall Country. The Hadrian's Wall Country Line train runs east west (and back again), linking Newcastle and Carlisle, and stopping at key towns and villages along the way.

Supporting the trains is a network of local buses. One bus in particular, the AD122 (see the connection?), runs from spring to autumn, with a specially designed route linking train stations and local towns to Hadrian's Wall and the National Trail. Handy if you're walking the Wall and have tired feet.

The AD122 offers discounted and unlimited Rover travel tickets, so that you can hop on and off as many times as you like. You can even use your ticket on other buses.

Order yours from hadrianswallshop.co.uk

For more travel information and AD122 timetables go to visithadrianswall.co.uk/travel or pop into a local Tourist Information Centre when you're here.

Eating and drinking well whilst on holiday is important. Fortunately Hadrian's Wall Country is blessed with many passionate local producers and establishments.

Breakfast's eggs and bacon will be sourced from local farms by your B&B. Homemade cakes and biscuits will accompany your morning coffees and afternoon teas. Pubs will have hearty dishes, ideally washed down with a pint (or two) of locally brewed ales. Restaurants will use local ingredients seasonally sourced. On the high streets of Hadrian's Wall Country, the butchers, bakeries, delis, farm shops and markets can always be relied upon for finding a tempting treat made round the corner.

Just make sure you leave time for some sightseeing too!

Walking and cycling, things to see and do outdoors, and on occasions, indoors.

Need somewhere to tire little legs out? There's plenty to choose from. Does the threat of rain leave you running for cover? We've got indoor activities like fascinating museums and unique shops to keep you entertained and dry. Don't fancy carrying your luggage between last night's bed and breakfast and tonight's accommodation? Then consider letting a baggage transfer service take the strain. Didn't bring your bike but have the urge to pedal? You can easily hire an adult, child or electric bike here.

If you've got lots you want to see and do but life is keeping you too busy to plan your holiday, contact a friendly tour guide or operator and let them take care of the details for you. From organised tours to personal guides, Hadrian's Wall Country is brimming with friendly locals eager to lend a helping hand.

Quality Gratings

how to understand them

As you may imagine, there's a wide range of accommodation available in Hadrian's Wall Country. Location, facilities, type of property and budget will all influence your choices. Faced with so many options, it can be comforting to know that expert help is at hand in terms of assessing accommodation.

Follow the sign

Looking out for either the Enjoy England & Quality Rose symbol or the AA logo is key. It's proof that the accommodation has been independently assessed for the official national quality assessment scheme by experienced professional inspectors.

You may on occasions see the Quality Cumbria logo, an assessment initiative run locally but in partnership with VisitEngland.

What's assessed and how?

There's an official Quality Rose and AA assessment scheme to cover every type of accommodation from self-catering to farm stays and hostels. Every scheme uses a straightforward 1-5 star rating to give you a reliable guide as to what to expect:

- ★ Simple, practical, no frills.
- ★★ Well presented and well run.
- ★★★ Good level of quality and comfort.
- ★★★★ Excellent standard throughout.
- ★★★★★ Exceptional with a degree of luxury.

Hotels

To be assessed under the Hotel scheme, hotels have to be licensed, with all rooms ensuite (or with private bathroom) and offer dinner at least 5 nights a week. It goes without saying, but you will find enhanced services with higher rated properties. Categories include Hotel, Country House Hotel, Small Hotel, Town House Hotel and Metro Hotel.

Guest accommodation

Guest accommodation properties are likely to be smaller than hotels with perhaps more of a family feel and approach. The different categories are: Inns, Restaurants with Rooms, Bed and Breakfast, Farmhouses, Guest Houses and Guest Accommodation.

Self catering

For self catering accommodation, the layout and design of the accommodation and the range and quality of the kitchen equipment are assessed, as well as the quality and comfort of the bedrooms and bathrooms and, most importantly, the cleanliness. Categories include Self Catering, Serviced Apartments and Approved Caravan Holiday home.

Hostels

Hostels provide safe, budget-priced accommodation for young people, families and larger groups. Higher rated hostels can often provide en suite rooms. The categories include Hostel, Group Hostel, Activity Accommodation, Bunkhouse (no star rating) and Camping Barn (no star rating).

Holiday, touring and camping parks

Ratings are awarded for the overall quality with five stars being reserved for parks of exceptional quality. The categories include Holiday Park, Holiday Villages, Touring Park and Camping Park.

Welcome to Excellence symbol

Businesses with this award aim to exceed visitor needs and expectations and provide an environment where courtesy, helpfulness and a warm welcome are standard.

Walkers Welcome and Cyclists Welcome

Accommodation that meets the particular needs of walkers and cyclists participate in these schemes.

Families Welcome scheme

This scheme gives families the confidence that they are booking accommodation that meets their particular needs. Simple criteria have been developed to indicate the extra facilities and service that can make a family holiday even more enjoyable.

Welcome Pets

Properties in this scheme have taken extra effort to ensure a pleasurable stay for both pet and owner.

Breakfast Award

This award recognises those hotels and guest accommodation businesses which have gone the extra mile to ensure the breakfast will exceed your expectations.

Awaiting Inspection

At the time of going to press, accommodation displaying Awaiting Inspection has applied for participation in one of the above assessment schemes. Please check with the business directly to ascertain what grading they have achieved.

Green Tourism Business Scheme (GTBS)

GTBS recognises places to stay and visit that are taking action to support the local area and the wider environment. It is Europe's largest and most successful 'green' accreditation scheme for tourism.

VisitEngland Gold & Silver Awards

VisitEngland give further accolades to hotels and guest accommodation that not only achieve their overall rating but also provide exceptional quality throughout, especially in service and hospitality.

AA Red Stars

The AA gives red stars to select hotels in each star grading. These have been awarded 'Inspectors' Choice' status

National Accessible Scheme

Hadrian's Wall Country offers many opportunities for visitors with disabilities to enjoy this unique destination. Many accommodation providers, restaurants and attractions cater for visitors with disabilities and will happily accommodate specific requirements. If you have particular mobility needs, look for the following National Accessible Scheme Symbols.

- |  |  |
|--|--|
|  Suitable for older and less mobile guests |  Suitable for the visually impaired           |
|  Suitable for part-time wheelchair users   |  Suitable for the hearing impaired            |
|  Suitable for independent wheelchair users |  Exceptional for independent wheelchair users |
|  |  Exceptional for assisted wheelchair users    |

Details of all these schemes can be found on visithadrianswall.co.uk

The Eastern Approaches: Tyneside to Hexham

From cultural city life to countryside serenity the easterly frontier of Hadrian's Wall Country deliver the best of both possible worlds - and delivers it in style.

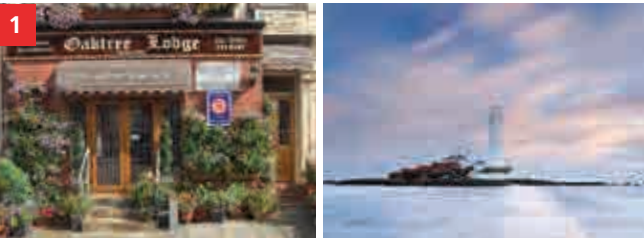

You can have your cake and eat it. Especially in immeasurably varied Hadrian's Wall Country's east. You can be city-based and soak up the immense cultural vitality, shopping and nightlife of NewcastleGateshead. You can explore stunning seaside vistas along an unspoiled coastline. Or you can roam free in rolling countryside and quaint villages. And, of course, there are iconic 'must-sees' such as The Angel of the North, BALTIC, the Great North Museum and NewcastleGateshead Quayside and bridges.

Near the lovely market town of Corbridge you can visit Vallum Farm and sample one of their delicious home made ice creams. Bustling Hexham is dominated by the medieval Abbey (built using stone from the Wall) and the Old Gaol, depicting the Border Reivers Story.

There's all this and the Wall itself, of course. Don't miss the reconstructions at the supply fort of Arbeia at South Shields or the extensive excavations of Segedunum at Wallsend. And Hadrian's Cycleway starts on the coast with the Hadrian's Wall Path National Trail also beginning in Wallsend.

The Spectacular Frontier: Hexham to Brampton

Discover an unparalleled treasure trove of spectacular landscape, unmissable visitor attractions and Imperial magnificence.

The central region of Hadrian's Wall Country is not to be missed. Not only delivering some of the most inspiring Roman remains, but offering a wealth of other essential things to do and see. From the sheer serenity of the Northumberland National Park, one of the quietest national parks in the country, to unbeatable family-fun attractions such as Walby Farm Park near Carlisle. Explore the many fabulous trails at Kielder Water and Forest Park. And there's the UK's first UNESCO Geopark – the North Pennines Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

On the Roman trail you're spoilt for choice. The Calvary fort at Chesters has a well preserved Wall and Bath House and there are the remarkable ruins of the temple of Mithras at Carrawburgh. Housesteads Roman Fort's magnificent ruins shouldn't be missed especially with its new visitor centre which opened last year. At Roman Vindolanda there are amazing reconstructions and ongoing archaeology, plus tremendous treasures showcased at Carvoran's Roman Army Museum. From Greenhead, there's an impressive section of Wall snaking along Walltown Crag, yielding panoramic views. Birdoswald, with its inspiring visitor centre, original turf Wall, later stone Wall and well preserved defences, gives unmatched insight into the Roman world.

The Cumbrian Coast: Brampton to Ravenglass

City life, wildlife, sealife, Roman life - it's all here in the West as Hadrian's Wall World Heritage Site takes in the stunning Cumbrian coastline.

Be sure to visit Lanercost Priory, a beautiful 13th century church with its visitor centre and excellent tea room. Then, by contrast, head to thriving Carlisle with its great shopping, art, culture, medieval Cathedral and Castle. Here Tullie House Museum & Art Gallery's multi million pound Roman Frontier Gallery tells the story of the 400 year period of Roman occupation like nowhere else. Walkers and cyclists can enjoy Hadrian's Wall Path National Trail and cycleway as it traverses the city.

There's the breathtaking Solway Firth, an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty renowned for its birdlife and nature based tourism. The beautiful harbour town of Maryport is the perfect base for exploring Senhouse Roman Museum and a wonderful aquarium. Georgian Whitehaven is the starting point for the C2C (coast to coast) cycleway and ideally placed for Hardknott Fort with its fabulous views. St Bees offers a lovely beach, rockpools and clifftop strolls. In Ravenglass there's the country's tallest Bath House remains and also 13th Century Muncaster with its Himalayan Gardens and World Owl Centre, as well as the Victorian Ravenglass and Eskdale Railway that will transport you to the foothills of England's highest peak.

Support the Wall

Did you know that every yard of the 150-mile long World Heritage Site costs £5 each year to look after?

As you can imagine, the Wall needs your help and support.

So how can you help?

Why not 'adopt' a digital stone in the online Hadrian's Wall? From as little as £3, you can be the proud owner of a virtual stone in the virtual Wall. If you want to give a monthly donation, your stone can be enhanced with a digital Roman soldier. There are even turrets and forts which can be sponsored. Visit adoptastone.co.uk to make a donation.

If you're on the go, you can give with your phone. Simply text Wall22 with your £ donation (eg Wall22 £10) to 70070 and your contribution will go straight to conserving and protecting the Wall. Or if you see a Hadrian's Wall collection box while visiting, please pop in any spare change.

Thank you
